

Gift Giving with 3 Daycare Centers

1st Gift giving was for the benefit of the children of in Baseco

Christmas is a time for giving, and this year, in the spirit of the holiday season, Springboard Foundation conducted 2 gift-giving activities for the benefit of poor children in Metro Manila.

The first was a joint activity between The Oakwood Premier Joy~Nostalq Center Manila and the American Chamber of Commerce, which held a Holiday Mixer for its members last November, 2010. Members of the American Chamber of Commerce were encouraged to bring one toy during the Mixer, to be donated to a specific organization.

The recipient of this partnership was the Springboard Foundation, who donated the toys collected by members of Amcham and Oakwood Premier to 82 daycare students of Baseco, Tondo, Manila.

In attendance during the gift-giving program held at the Hope Worldwide Center on December 17, 2010, were Ms. Gina Tuazon, and Ms. Annette Helbig of Springboard Foundation, who said a few words of gratitude to the sponsors of the activity; Teacher Ana and Bryan of Hope, who gave the opening remarks at the start of the program; Mr. Brian Connelly, General Manager of Oakwood Premier, Ms. Genny Puno, Public Relations and Marketing Communications Manager of Oakwood Premier, Mr. Jun Salipsip, Executive Director, and Mr. Robert Sears, Chairman of the American Chamber of Commerce, who also gave a special message during the program.

Also to express their gratitude for the wonderful toys received, the little boys and girls sang a touching Christmas song dedicated to members of Amcham, Oakwood Premier and Springboard Foundation.

To express their appreciation for the donation, Ms. Annette Helbig, President of Springboard Foundation presented Mr. Brian Connelly and Oakwood Premier with a Certificate of Gratitude.

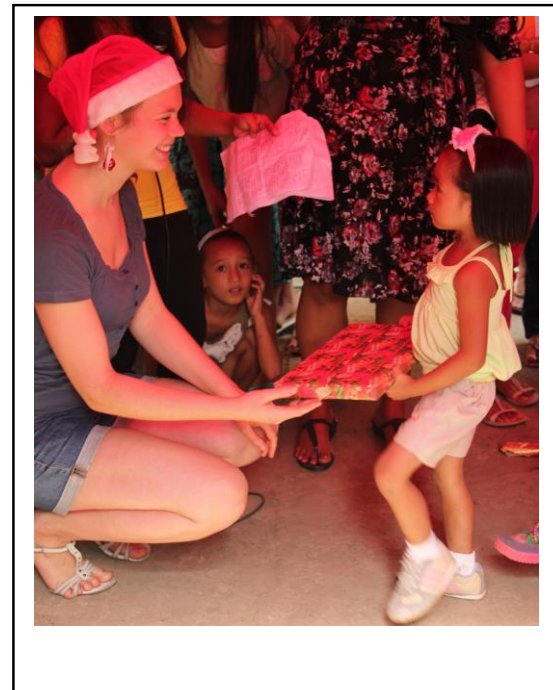

More gifts from Amcham and Oak wood Premier for the 2nd gift-giving activity was for the benefit of the children of Manggahan Day Care in Paranaque City, held on December 24, 2010

In attendance during the program from Springboard Foundation were Ms. Annette Helbig and her children, Ms. Gina Tuazon, and Mr. Bernd Helbig and family & Ms. Heidi Helbig and Dieter Finke, 50 Day Care students and their mothers.

The mothers of the Day Care students sang a Christmas song, while their children prepared a special dance number. In response to the wonderful performances dedicated to them by the students and parents, the Helbig Family sang a traditional German Christmas Song.

Gifts were given by Springboard Foundation to the 50 Day Care students, as well as cash gifts to the two Day Care teachers.

Gifts from Amcham and Oakwood Premier left over have been given to the little boys and girls of Wella Day Care Center.
